

The decision by Sinclair Broadcasting to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary is a flagrant abuse of the privilege to use free public airwaves, and must be stopped. I am requesting the FCC, as a regulatory organization serving the interests of the public, to require Sinclair to either not air this program, or air a program immediately before or after "Stolen Honor", that gives equal time to the opposing viewpoints.

Thank you.

Laurie Flynn